(„Baltos durys")

Summary

Genas's favourite uncle, Fūnia, suddenly dies because of a sickness. Acting in the theater takes his mind off of that. The boy falls in love with a girl named Agnietè who betrays him. Genas gets addicted to drugs. The rest of the summer he spends working.

The topic of drugs is not further discussed in the story.

In the final pages of the book, Genas's complete breakdown is revealed.

Why is the book's title
"The White Door"?

Quotes

- "Every person is a gift from God. They should be." („Kiekvienas žmogus yra Dievo dovana. Turėtų būti.")
- "It seemed to me that at this instant houses should collapse, cars should trumble down, and all the street lights in the city should shut down" („Man atrodė, kad šią akimirką turėtų sugriūti namai, susidurti mašinos, o mieste - užgesti visi gatvių žibintai.")

Quotes

- "But who will I be when I die?
My soul will be incarnated in another life." („O kas būsīu, kai numirsiu? Juk mano siela īsikūnys kitoje gyvybēje.")
- "It think that the day Fūnia died, my childhood ended." („Man
atrodo, kad tā diena,
kai numirē Fūnia,
pasibaigē mano vaikystē.")

Quotes

- "Everything is a one big secret. You, Genukas, also are a big secret". („Viskas yra viena didelė paslaptis. Tu, Genukai, irgi esi didelė paslaptis.")
- "You're not breathing, you're snoring, as if your lungs were old bellows punctured with soot." („Ne kvėpuoji, o šnarpšti, tarsi tavo plaučiai būtų senos, nuo suodžių prakiūrusios dumplės.")
